"We are proud to continue our long-standing commitment to diversity and inclusion by celebrating Lunar New Year with our customers, communities and colleagues," said Jose Gamio, vice president of Diversity Strategies, Macy's, Inc. "As part of our annual celebration, select stores will honor the 'Year of the Pig' with themed special events and specialized, limited-edition merchandise in beauty, home, women's, men's, kids and fashion accessories."

In celebration of Lunar New Year, in-store events will take place at select Macy's across the country including New York, California and Hawaii. These festivities will feature lucky money walls and trees, traditional Chinese cuisine, Lion Dance performances and kung fu demonstrations, in-store giveaways, and more. Lunar New Year festivities at Macy's will also include tourism outreach with exclusive savings for travelers visiting from China during the holiday. For more information travelers can go to visitmacysusa.com.

Macy's is proud to offer a variety of Lunar New Year-themed and specially created holiday products at select stores and online at macys.com/celebrate. Macy's has gifts for everyone on your Lunar New Year shopping list including cosmetics and fragrances, handbags, spectacular dressers, and stunning jewelry. M.A.C. recently rolled out a limited-edition line of red lipsticks to celebrate Lunar New Year, so customers can dress up their favorite reds in festive, metallic red tubes with floral imprints. Kipling and Radley London have also created limited-edition clutches and handbags in the traditional red for customers celebrating Lunar New Year. Or, let the recipient pick their perfect item with a commemorative Macy's Lunar New Year gift card, in a holiday red envelope.
