

Voya to Begin Role as New Service Provider for Gwinnett County, Georgia, Retirement Plans
Tuesday, October 23, 2018 02:00:00 PM (GMT)

Voya Financial, Inc. (NYSE: VOYA), announced today that through a competitive bid process earlier this year, its Retirement business was selected to serve as the new recordkeeper for the Gwinnett County, Georgia, Defined Contribution and Deferred Compensation Plans. The Gwinnett County Retirement Plans Management Committee approved the selection. Segal Consulting and UBS Financial Services both assisted throughout the evaluation process.

The Gwinnett County Retirement Plans consist of 401(a) defined contribution and voluntary 457(b) plans, which allow participants to set aside funds from each paycheck toward their retirement. As of Sept. 11, 2018, the plans represented approximately $424 million in assets under administration and nearly 11,300 participating members. The plans are scheduled to transition to Voya's administrative platform this month.

As part of its commitment to advancing the retirement readiness of Americans, Voya will provide plan members with localized support and access to industry-leading educational tools and resources. These include Voya's myOrangeMoney[®] retirement-income-estimating capabilities and participant website experience, as well as communication and education programs designed to engage and motivate employees to save.

"We're delighted to start our partnership with the Gwinnett County Retirement Plans Management Committee and look forward to supporting the hardworking men and women of the county as they prepare for greater security in retirement," said Heather Lavalley, president of Tax-Exempt Markets for Voya Financial. "Our commitment to service and dedicated support staff will help ensure the county's employees meet their broader retirement and financial wellness goals."

Voya Financial's Retirement business serves clients of all sizes and across all sectors, including employers in the government and other tax-exempt retirement plan markets. As a leader and advocate for greater retirement readiness, Voya Financial is committed to delivering on its vision to be America's Retirement Company[®] and on its mission to make a secure financial future possible — one person, one family, one institution at a time.
