

Morgan Stanley Wealth Management Names 17 Women of Achievement to MAKERS Class of 2017
Wednesday, March 22, 2017 04:00:00 PM (GMT)

Morgan Stanley Wealth Management has recognized the achievements of 17 outstanding women professionals as part of its partnership with MAKERS – a project dedicated to identifying and celebrating women of accomplishment across multiple fields.

"There is no better endorsement of Morgan Stanley's commitment to be the firm of choice for women than the stories of our highly accomplished women professionals," said Shelley O'Connor and Andy Saperstein, Co-heads of Morgan Stanley Wealth Management. "Our affiliation with MAKERS is a powerful way to highlight their talent and generosity which makes a difference for their clients, colleagues and communities each and every day."

Nominations were solicited from across the wealth management organization and a panel of senior managers selected the 17 women to be recognized. They are:

- Laura Adams, Managing Director, Head of Canada's Institutional Equity Distribution Business
- Lindsey Cooksen, Vice President, Private Wealth Advisor, Houston, TX
