

GE Names Peter Lefkowitz as Chief Privacy Counsel
Wednesday, August 28, 2013 05:00:00 PM (GMT)

GE [NYSE:GE] announced today the appointment of Peter Lefkowitz as chief privacy counsel, effective September 9, 2013.

Lefkowitz joins GE from Oracle where he served as vice president of privacy and security legal and chief privacy officer. In this role, Lefkowitz worked closely with Oracle corporate security on privacy and security oversight and compliance. In addition, he advised Oracle's internal business functions and product and services businesses on structuring and managing cloud services, responding to security incidents and maintaining required information protection systems, policies, standards, registrations and certifications.

"Peter is a great leader with deep operational experience," said GE Senior Vice President and General Counsel Brackett Denniston. "He brings to GE valuable skills in building secure capabilities and solutions, and we are excited to have him on our team."

Prior to joining Oracle in 1998, Lefkowitz clerked for the Honorable Robert E. Coyle, Chief Judge of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of California. He graduated with a bachelor of arts in history from Yale College and received his J.D. from Harvard Law School.

Lefkowitz is a member of the board of directors at the Jewish Family and Children's Services of Greater Boston and chairs Bet Tzedek Legal Services. He is also a member of the board of editors for the Boston Bar Journal.
