

Voya Financial Selected as New Service Provider for Circle K Retirement Program
Tuesday, March 03, 2020 02:00:00 PM (GMT)

Voya Financial, Inc. (NYSE:VOYA), announced that its Retirement business has been selected as the new recordkeeper and service provider for the Circle K Retirement program.

Circle K is an international chain of convenience stores with offices and stores across the U.S. The 401(k) plan, which transitioned to Voya in January 2020, represents approximately $450 million in assets under administration and serves roughly 80,000 eligible participants.

As part of its commitment to advancing the retirement readiness of all Americans, Voya will provide plan members with access to industry-leading educational tools and resources. These include Voya's myOrangeMoney® interactive and educational participant website experience, as well as communication and education programs designed to engage and motivate employees to save and achieve their holistic financial wellness needs.

"We're thrilled that Circle K has placed its trust in Voya by selecting us as the company's new retirement service provider," said Bill Harmon, president, Retirement Corporate Markets for Voya Financial. "We look forward to growing our relationship in the years to come and are excited to help support the broader financial wellness needs of Circle K employees as they prepare for greater security in retirement."

Voya is uniquely positioned in the market to serve retirement plans of all sizes and across all segments, including large, complex 401(k) plans. As an industry leader and advocate for greater retirement readiness, Voya Financial is committed to delivering on its vision to be America's Retirement Company® and its mission to make a secure financial future possible — one person, one family, one institution at a time.
