

BetterInvesting Magazine Releases September Stock To Study and Undervalued Stock Choices for Investors' Informational and Educational Use
Friday, June 27, 2014 08:15:00 PM (GMT)

MADISON HEIGHTS, Mich., June 27, 2014 /PRNewswire-USNewswire/ -- The Editorial Advisory and Securities Review Committee of BetterInvesting Magazine today announced Gentex Corporation (NDQ: GNTX) as its September 2014 "Stock to Study" and Target Corporation (NYSE: TGT) as its September 2014 "Undervalued Stock" for investors' informational and educational use.

"The committee chose Gentex because of its management-led growth, continued opportunities internationally and current reasonable valuation," said Adam Ritt, editor of BetterInvesting Magazine. "For the Undervalued selection, the committee cited Target's historical retailing acumen and strong store locations as reasons to believe the company will overcome its data breach and other problems." Check BetterInvesting's September issue for more details about these selections.

Committee members are Robert M. Bilkie, Jr., CFA; Daniel J. Boyle, CFA; Philip S. Dano, CFA; Donald E. Danko, CFA; Maury Elvekrog, CFA; Walter J. Kirchberger, CFA; Marisa Lenhard, CFA; and Paul McVey, CFA.

As stated, the BetterInvesting committee's Stock to Study and Undervalued Stock choices are for the informational and educational uses of investors and are not intended as investment recommendations. BetterInvesting urges investors to educate themselves about the stock market so they can make informed decisions about stock purchases.
