ROCKVILLE, Md., Dec. 6, 2016 /PRNewswire/ -- Choice Hotels International, Inc. (NYSE: CHH) is pleased to announce it scored a perfect 100 as part of the 2017 Human Rights Campaign (HRC) Corporate Equality Index – an annual report from HRC ranking companies on LGBT-friendly practices and policies. This rank has earned Choice Hotels the distinction of being one of HRC's "Best Places to Work for LGBT Equality."

"Choice Hotels champions an inclusive environment for all of our colleagues and we're proud to be recognized as a best place to work for LGBT equality for a seventh time," said Steve Joyce, CEO, Choice Hotels International. "Diversity and inclusion are part of our DNA at Choice, and are integrated in every aspect of our business. We know that only through a culture built on the diversity of thought, background and experience can we make the best decisions and attract and retain top talent. Ensuring that we adhere to inclusionary practices helps us be a better business."

The 2017 Corporate Equality Index (CEI) chronicles the remarkable advances that have taken place on behalf of lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and queer equality in the workplace since 2002. In its first year, only 13 businesses received a top 100 percent score. This year, Choice Hotels is among more than 500 corporations, across industries, geographies, and size that received a 100 percent score.

As part of the CEI, Choice Hotels was rated on 40 specific policies and practices. To achieve a perfect score and the distinction of "Best Places to Work for LGBT Equality," Choice Hotels had to have fully inclusive equal employment opportunity policies, provide equal employment benefits, demonstrate organizational LGBT competency, evidence its commitment to equality publicly and exercise responsible citizenship.
