On January 26, 2018, multiple news sources reported that CEO Steve Wynn was accused of a pattern of sexual misconduct by past and present employees. On this news shares of Wynn fell $20.31, or more than 10%, to close at $180.29 on January 26, 2018, and continued to fall nearly 10% in the next trading session to close at $163.48 per share on January 29, 2018, thereby injuring investors. And, on February 6, 2017, the Company announced that effective immediately Steve Wynn had resigned his positions as Chairman and CEO of Wynn.

The Complaint filed in this class action alleges that throughout the Class Period, Defendants made materially false and misleading statements regarding the Company's business, operational and compliance policies. Specifically, Defendants made false and/or misleading statements and/or failed to disclose that: (i) the Company's founder and Chief Executive Officer ("CEO"), Stephen (Steve) A. Wynn had engaged in a pattern of sexual misconduct with respect to Wynn Resorts employees, including instances of sexual assault; (ii) discovery of the foregoing misconduct would subject the Company to heightened regulatory scrutiny and jeopardize Wynn's tenure at the Company; and (iii) as a result of the foregoing, Wynn Resorts' shares traded at artificially inflated prices during the Class Period, and class members suffered significant losses and damages.
