

Uber reaches settlement with 50 states and District of Columbia to settle reporting of 2016 data breach

Wednesday, September 26, 2018 04:13:33 PM (GMT)

- Uber has reached a settlement for $148M with the states and the District of Columbia regarding the data breach that the company failed to disclose in 2016
- The fine will be distributed in varying amounts across the states and Washington, D.C.
- The terms also include changes to Uber's business practices to prevent future breaches and to reform its corporate culture.

Industries: Computer & Internet Services

Primary Identifiers: 0B49NF-E

Related Identifiers: 0B49NF-E

Subjects: Litigation, Other Regulatory, Regulatory