Friday, November 01, 2019 02:00:00 PM (GMT)

ATLANTA, Nov. 1, 2019 /PRNewswire/ -- Two of movie mogul Harvey Weinstein's attorneys and two of his accusers sit down for exclusive interviews with Court TV's Seema Iyer in a two-night primetime event Nov. 4 and Nov. 5 at 8:00 p.m. ET/PT. (Court TV Weinstein promo: <https://youtu.be/l70LJwibrsw>)

Iyer's interviews with Weinstein Attorneys Donna Rotunno and Damon Cheronis air on Monday, Nov. 4, with conversations with alleged victims Kadian Noble and Hope Exiner d'Amore running on Tuesday, Nov. 5. Iyer landed and conducted the interviews and she will join Vinnie Politan live on the set of Closing Arguments with Vinnie Politan both nights to discuss what was said and the Weinstein case overall.

Excerpts from the exclusive interviews:

- Hope Exiner d'Amore, accuser: "He's a sociopath. When you go after people who are weaker than you in some way and you do it repeatedly, there's something severely wrong with you."

Court TV will be the only news organization covering the rape trial of Weinstein live as it happens and gavel-to-gavel when it begins. Court TV will be stationed adjacent to the New York City courthouse for the duration of the trial, with live reporting from inside and outside the courtroom. Court TV anchors will host the coverage, both live on-location in Manhattan and from the network's studios in Atlanta. Court TV reporters will take turns rotating in-and-out of the courtroom to provide constant live trial updates throughout the day. Courtroom sketches, exclusive interviews with players in the case and in-depth analysis by the country's brightest attorneys, most experienced investigators and experts will provide legal insights into the proceedings.

Weinstein faces charges of rape, sexual assault and predatory sexual assault and if convicted could spend the rest of his life in prison. 87 women in total have accused the entertainment mogul of sexual misconduct dating back decades. The accusations helped spark prominent recognition and rise of the #MeToo movement, in which hundreds of women have publicly accused powerful men in business, politics, the news media and entertainment of sexual harassment and abuse.

Court TV is devoted to live, gavel-to-gavel coverage, in-depth legal reporting and expert analysis of the nation's most important and compelling trials. It is a multi-platform network, available to be seen on cable, over-the-air and over-the-top. Court TV grew even more this week, expanding its footprint into 19 new markets, including New York, Los Angeles, Chicago, Philadelphia and Dallas. The new launches drive the network's over-the-air penetration to nearly 90 percent of the country and nearly 40 percent on cable.

Court TV is also live streamed on CourtTV.com as well as the Court TV app for Roku®, Apple TV, Amazon Fire TV and Android and Apple devices. All feature robust and exclusive content from the massive Court TV library, including the nation's most compelling, high-profile cases over the past 20 years available on demand.

Court TV is part of Katz Networks, targeted, demo-specific brands leading a new generation of fast-growing, multi-platform networks that super serve consumers with diverse and entertaining programming available to be seen everywhere, on over-the-air, cable, satellite television, via over-the-top services, on mobile devices and on the web.
