

AT&T Director, Cybersecurity Services Kim Bilderback To Speak Aug. 21 At Boston University
Conference On University-Sector Enterprise Network Security
Monday, August 18, 2014 12:00:00 PM (GMT)

OAKTON, Va., Aug. 18, 2014 /PRNewswire/ -- AT&T Business Solutions \(ABS\), a division of AT&T Inc. (NYSE: T) today announced AT&T Cybersecurity Services Director Kim Bilderback will speak August 21 at Boston University (BU) to a conference attended by network and security administrators and chief information officers from BU, Brown University and Boston College, in addition to other New England area educational institutions.

The BU-hosted Security Camp provides a forum where those responsible for maintaining computing security in the higher education environment can share and benefit from collective experiences. Information here: <http://www.bu.edu/tech/services/security/services/security-events-training/camp/>

"The university community is, simultaneously, one of the greatest targets for network intrusions and data breaches and a source of some of the most innovative approaches to network security. As a result, I'm looking greatly forward to speaking at Boston University later this month," Mr. Bilderback said.

Bilderback will be speaking to the continual year over year rise of breaches and the technologies shown to be effective against the risks.
