

EQUITY ALERT: Rosen Law Firm Announces Investigation of Breaches of Fiduciary Duties By Management of McDonald's Corporation – MCD
Thursday, January 16, 2020 09:13:00 PM (GMT)

Rosen Law Firm, a global investor rights law firm, announces it is investigating potential breaches of fiduciary duties by management of McDonald's Corporation (NYSE:MCD) resulting from allegations that management may have issued materially misleading business information to the investing public.

On May 21, 2019, the American Civil Liberties Union announced the filing of 25 new lawsuits and regulatory charges of condoning sexual harassment in the workplace and retaliating against employees. Then on November 3, 2019, McDonald's Chief Executive Officer, Steve Easterbrook, was terminated for having an undisclosed relationship with an employee.

Most recently, on January 7, 2020, two McDonald's executives filed a lawsuit against the fast-food giant alleging systemic racial discrimination and a hostile work environment under the company's former chief executive.
