About Budweiser Made In America Festival Philadelphia

Slated for its sixth year in Philadelphia, the "Budweiser Made in America" Festival will once again attract thousands of visitors and festival-goers to the City of Brotherly Love on Labor Day weekend 2017. After the inaugural two-day music festival in 2012, the event generated at least $10 million in economic impact for the city's economy. Additionally, the "Budweiser Made in America" Festival benefits United Way of Greater Philadelphia and Southern New Jersey with the goal of having a positive impact on the host community. The "Budweiser Made in America" festival will also benefit the ACLU.

The City of Philadelphia is excited and more than ready to host the festival once again in 2017. Philadelphia is not only a recipient of the International Festival & Events Association Award for the third consecutive year, it is also the first US World Heritage City. As it most recently hosted the 2017 NFL Draft to great success, the city has considerable experience producing and accommodating big events like the Broad Street Run, the Philadelphia Marathon, the Wawa Welcome America 4th of July Festival, and the Philadelphia International Festival of the Arts – events that welcome tens of thousands of residents and visitors alike. In short, Philadelphia is world class when it comes to community and culture.

About Budweiser

Budweiser, an American-style lager, was introduced in 1876 when company founder Adolphus Busch set out to create the United States' first truly national beer brand – brewed to be universally popular and transcend regional tastes. Each batch of Budweiser follows the same family recipe used by five generations of Busch family brewmasters. Budweiser is a medium-bodied, flavorful, crisp and pure beer with blended layers of premium American and European hop aromas, brewed for the perfect balance of flavor and refreshment. Budweiser is made using time-honored methods including "kraeusening" for natural carbonation and Beechwood aging, which results in unparalleled balance and character. The brand celebrates great times and has used the phrase "Grab Some Buds" in advertising since 2010.

About United Way of Philadelphia and Southern New Jersey

United Way of Greater Philadelphia and Southern New Jersey, serving communities in Pennsylvania's Chester, Delaware, Montgomery and Philadelphia counties, and New Jersey's Atlantic, Burlington, Camden, Cape May and Cumberland counties, is part of a national network of more than 1,300 locally governed organizations that work to create lasting positive changes in communities and in people's lives. United Way engages the community to identify the underlying causes of the most significant local issues, develops strategies and pulls together financial and human resources to address them, and measures the results. United Way is advancing the common good in Greater Philadelphia and Southern New Jersey by positively impacting the lives of people throughout the region in the areas of education, income, and health.

About ACLU of Pennsylvania

The ACLU of Pennsylvania is an affiliate of the American Civil Liberties Union. Founded in 1920, the ACLU is the nation's foremost guardian of liberty. The ACLU of Pennsylvania is a nonprofit, nonpartisan organization dedicated to defending and protecting our individual rights and personal freedoms.

Through advocacy, education and litigation, our attorneys, advocates and volunteers work to preserve and promote civil liberties, including the freedom of speech, the right to privacy, reproductive freedom, and equal treatment under the law.
