

Texas Roadhouse enters consent decree with EEOC; to take related Q1 $12M charge -- 8-K
Tuesday, April 04, 2017 09:26:17 PM (GMT)

- On 31-Mar-17, Texas Roadhouse entered into a consent decree with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.
- The Consent Decree settles the previously disclosed EEOC lawsuit alleging that, during the time period of 1-Jan-07 through 31-Dec-14, applicants age 40 and over were denied employment by Texas Roadhouse at company owned or managed restaurants in bartender, host, server and server assistant positions due to their age, in violation of the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967.
- The Consent Decree was entered in the United States District Court, District of Massachusetts, Civil Action Number 1:11-cv-11732.
- The company has recorded a charge of approximately $12.0M in Q1 of 2017 based on the terms set forth in the Consent Decree.
