Recruiting Success Leads AT&T to Double Hiring Goal to 10,000; Veterans Prove Good Fit as Company Staffs for Network Expansion

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 11, 2013 /PRNewswire/ -- More than 3,600 veterans have started new careers at AT&T across the country so far this year. And with veterans' skills proving to be a good fit for the company's needs, AT&T is doubling its hiring goal for veterans and their family members to 10,000 over the next five years, consistent with its commitment to equal employment opportunities.

About 55 percent of the veterans hired by AT&T this year made their transition to the private sector as technicians. Project Velocity IP, the company's investment plan to expand and enhance its IP broadband networks, is driving technician hiring needs.

Other veterans and their family members are finding positions across AT&T as IT professionals, retail and call center representatives, project managers, financial analysts, supply chain managers and more. And a select corps of junior officers and college-educated noncommissioned officers are being recruited into AT&T leadership development programs.

"We appreciate the leadership Governor Beshear has shown in making Kentucky a place that supports returning servicemen and women as they transition from active duty to civilian careers," said AT&T Kentucky President Hood Harris. "As a part of AT&T's long standing tradition of honoring and valuing our veterans, we hope to hire some of these talented men and women to join our company's efforts to make Kentucky a more connected Commonwealth."

AT&T's goal of hiring 10,000 veterans and their family members over the next five years doubles a goal it set in April with the White House's Joining Forces Initiative. AT&T also announced then that it is leading an initiative with JPMorgan Chase and the 100,000 Jobs Mission to create the veteran talent exchange, www.vtx.jobs. The exchange enables active-duty military and veteran job candidates to "opt-in" to a talent-sharing database to facilitate the sharing and referral of veteran candidates among participating 100,000 Jobs Mission member companies.

AT&T actively supports veterans and their family members:

- AT&T has a veteran career site that includes tools for veterans to match their military skills with AT&T jobs.
- AT&T launched a military spouse career site that showcases the breadth of AT&T's portable and virtual careers across our US locations.
- AT&T's military talent attraction manager focuses on military recruitment.
- The company has a Careers for Veterans program where AT&T Veterans provide job search advice to veterans transitioning from military service.
