

Voya Financial Releases 2018/2019 Impact Report: A Secure Financial Future for All
Wednesday, August 28, 2019 04:00:00 PM (GMT)

Voya Financial, Inc. (NYSE: VOYA), announced today that it has published its 2018/2019 Impact Report, which reinforces how the company empowers its people, serves its clients, invests in communities and protects the environment.

“Through our work, individuals and families put their trust in us to help them plan for retirement,” said Voya Financial Chairman and CEO Rodney O. Martin, Jr. “Our commitment to integrity, ethics and purpose in all that we do matters to all of our stakeholders — and is a reflection on our culture, our people and the character of our brand.”

This year’s impact report — written in accordance with the Global Reporting Initiative standards — focuses on how Voya tackles issues that are most important to its business and stakeholders. It also highlights Voya’s efforts around human capital, ethics and integrity, responsible products and service. The report also includes Voya’s 2020 Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) commitments. Highlights include:

- Voya’s focus on ESG investing and solutions to help clients meet their investment objectives;
- Voya’s strategies to mitigate and remediate cyber risks and safeguard data;
- A look at how we are addressing American workers’ financial wellness; and
- An overview of Voya efforts to optimize diversity and inclusion efforts with our philanthropic work.
