

No Barriers, Wells Fargo Open Applications for 2020 Global Impact Challenge Wednesday, July 01, 2020 02:00:10 PM (GMT)

Global Impact Challenge is a competition that encourages ideas for creating more diverse and inclusive communities

FORT COLLINS, CO, July 01, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- No Barriers and Wells Fargo & Company (NYSE: WFC) seek educators who serve middle or high school students from across the U.S. to participate in the 2020 Global Impact Challenge.

The Global Impact Challenge is a year-long competition designed to inspire the best ideas from students, with and without disabilities, to remove societal barriers so all people can benefit from community inclusion. The goal of this competition is to equip teachers with tools to elevate the classroom curriculum to embrace differences and develop actionable steps towards more inclusive communities. The program can be completed both in-person with students, or through virtual means.

"No Barriers unleashes the potential of educators and their students, giving them the mindset and tools to break through barriers and lead with purpose," said Andrea Delorey, No Barriers Experience Design and Impact Director. "We're grateful to Wells Fargo for helping make the challenge possible."

"The Global Impact Challenge develops leaders, change-makers and aspiring visionaries," said Kathy Martinez, head of Disability and Accessibility Strategy for Wells Fargo. "The program unites educators and students to discover how to build a world ready for greater possibilities through innovative accessibility solutions."
