

Macy's and The Trevor Project Partner in Celebration of Pride Month
Thursday, April 18, 2019 08:30:00 PM (GMT)

As part of its upcoming nationwide Pride + Joy, LGBTQ Pride Month celebrations, Macy's will raise funds and awareness for The Trevor Project's life-saving mission through a host of initiatives, including a nationwide charitable giving program, exclusive fashions and a digital media awareness campaign aimed at reaching at-risk LGBTQ youth

This June, Macy's (NYSE:M) will kick-off its annual Pride + Joy national LGBTQ Pride Month celebrations with its customers, colleagues and local communities in commemoration of Stonewall 50 and World Pride NYC. A key component of that celebration is its nationwide partnership with The Trevor Project. In mid-May, Macy's and The Trevor Project will begin the roll-out of a series of initiatives aimed at raising funds and awareness for Trevor's life-saving mission and services for at-risk LGBTQ young people, highlighting Macy's long-standing commitment to diversity, equality, inclusion and respect for all.

Volunteerism. "As The Trevor Project's national Pride partner, we will aim to raise funds and awareness of Trevor's mission and life-saving services, harnessing the power of our brand to make a difference in the communities we serve."

"The Trevor Project is grateful to Macy's for sharing their commitment to our mission with their customers, who will have their own chance to support LGBTQ youth in crisis this Pride month," said Amit Paley, CEO & executive director of The Trevor Project. "Every day, we serve LGBTQ young people in Macy's local communities nationwide, so we're excited to share our affirming messages of hope and support in their stores."

The Trevor Project is the world's largest suicide prevention and crisis intervention organization for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, and questioning (LGBTQ) young people. The organization works to save young lives by providing support through free and confidential programs, including TrevorLifeline, TrevorText, and TrevorChat. They also run TrevorSpace, the world's largest safe space social networking site for LGBTQ youth, and operate innovative education, research, and advocacy programs.

To help raise funds for Trevor's important work, from June 1 – June 17 at all Macy's stores nationwide, shoppers can celebrate Pride by giving back to The Trevor Project through Macy's charitable round-up program. As customers complete their in-store purchases, they will be invited to round up to the nearest dollar (up to $.99) and donate the change to The Trevor Project. These donations will help support the organization's mission of providing crisis intervention and suicide prevention services. In select markets including Chicago, Cincinnati, Houston, Lexington (KY), Los Angeles, Minneapolis, New York City, Seattle, St. Louis, and St. Petersburg (FL), the round-up campaign will be extended through June 30 to coincide with Pride parade celebrations in which Macy's has a local presence.

Macy's shoppers are also invited to show their Pride through fashion as they support The Trevor Project with style. Pride and its signature colors will be front and center in the limited-edition, three-piece capsule collection by INC International Concepts. Featuring gender-neutral t-shirts, tanks and socks with rainbow detailing, throughout the month of June, Macy's will donate $4 of the purchase price of the INC t-shirt and tank and $2 of the purchase price of the socks to The Trevor Project. The pieces retail for $10 to $20 and will be available in select stores and on macys.com/celebrate.

To help spread awareness of The Trevor Project's life-saving work, Macy's and Trevor created a PSA showcasing heartfelt personal vignettes of hope and how the support of Trevor's programs helped LGBTQ youth in crisis. The PSA, debuting on May 20, will run in several length formats across digital and social media channels. It is introduced by and features Jazz Jennings, the young transgender activist and star of the TLC reality series, "I Am Jazz."

Additionally, Macy's partnership with The Trevor Project extends to a presenting sponsorship of this year's TrevorLIVE NY benefit gala, taking place at Cipriani Wall Street on Monday, June 17. Honorees, presenters, hosts, and celebrity attendees will be announced soon.

As a pivotal component of Macy's Pride + Joy campaign, the national partnership with The Trevor Project, once again showcases Macy's steadfast value of diversity and inclusion in all areas of business. This commitment is evidenced by the company's consistent achievement of a 100 percent score on the Human Rights Commission's Corporate Equality Index, the national benchmarking tool on corporate policies and practices.
