

TWENTY-FIRST CENTURY FOX INVESTIGATION INITIATED by Former Louisiana Attorney General: Kahn Swick & Foti, LLC Investigates the Officers and Directors of Twenty-First Century Fox, Inc. - FOX
Saturday, November 18, 2017 03:50:00 AM (GMT)

Former Attorney General of Louisiana, Charles C. Foti, Jr., Esq., a partner at the law firm of Kahn Swick & Foti, LLC ("KSF"), announces that KSF has commenced an investigation into Twenty-First Century Fox, Inc. (NasdaqGS: FOX).

Since 2016 through the present, the Company has been besieged with damaging revelations of misconduct. Recently, on November 14, 2017, during the corruption trial of three former executives of FIFA (Fédération Internationale of Football Association), witness testimony revealed that Fox Sports had paid bribes for the purpose of obtaining broadcasting rights for the coverage of tournaments in order to further its goal of expanding its television rights throughout the Americas.

This revelation comes on the heels of a broad range of complaints of sexual harassment and discrimination over the years made against former Fox executives and employees, including former head of Fox News Roger Ailes and Bill O'Reilly, host of The O'Reilly Factor, which resulted in negative publicity, litigation against the Company and significant settlements paid out by the Company to resolve some of the claims, totaling a reported $85 million, as well as the departure of key executives and personalities.

KSF's investigation is focusing on whether Fox's officers and/or directors breached their fiduciary duties to Fox's shareholders or otherwise violated state or federal laws.

If you have information that would assist KSF in its investigation, or have been a long-term holder of Fox shares and would like to discuss your legal rights, you may, without obligation or cost to you, call toll-free at 1-877-515-1850 or email KSF Managing Partner Lewis Kahn (lewis.kahn@ksfcounsel.com).
