

Equifax near deal to pay ~$700M to settle data-breach investigations -- WSJ
Saturday, July 20, 2019 06:06:30 PM (GMT)

- Citing sources, the WSJ reports that Equifax is nearing a deal that would see the credit-reporting firm pay ~$700M to the FTC, the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau and most state attorneys general. The deal would also resolve a nationwide consumer class-action lawsuit.
- The settlement could be announced as soon as Monday.
