

Visa Named to the 100 Best Corporate Citizens List
Monday, May 07, 2018 04:42:00 PM (GMT)

In recognition of our commitment to corporate responsibility and sustainability, Visa (NYSE: V) today was named to Corporate Responsibility Magazine's 100 Best Corporate Citizens list. Ranked #39 this year, the magazine's annual issue acknowledged Visa and other companies for advancing corporate responsibility performance and transparency across environmental, social and governance areas.

"Visa is committed to being a responsible leader and partner of choice to our stakeholders as we connect the world through the most innovative, reliable and secure digital payment network," said Douglas Sabo, vice president, head of corporate responsibility and philanthropy at Visa Inc. "Our inclusion on this year's list reflects progress in our areas of focus -- including operating responsibly throughout our business, operations and supply chain -- as well as our continued focus on transparency and reporting. We are honored to be among those recognized."

The 100 Best Corporate Citizens list is published annually by Corporate Responsibility Magazine. To compile the list, every company on the Russell 1000 Index is ranked based on publicly available information using a methodology governed by the Corporate Responsibility Association (CRA).
