

Under Armour announces departure of Chief Merchandising Officer Henry Stafford
Tuesday, May 03, 2016 08:19:13 PM (GMT)

- Stafford will be leaving Under Armour in July 2016.
- Kip Fulks will assume the Chief Merchandising Officer responsibilities on an interim basis.
- In November 2015, the company announced that Fulks was assuming a new role at the company, focusing on key development areas for the business.
- The company also announced that Michael Lee, co-founder of MyFitnessPal, will be assuming the responsibilities of Chief Digital Officer as Robin Thurston will be leaving the company in July 2016.

Reference Links:

- Under Armour Announces Changes To Senior Management Team

Industries: Apparel/Accessories

Primary Identifiers: UAA-US

Related Identifiers: UAA-US

Subjects: Corporate Actions, Management Changes