

FIS Again Named a Best Place to Work for LGBTQ Equality

Friday, February 14, 2020 01:00:00 PM (GMT)

Key facts

- FIS has been designated a Best Place to Work for LGBTQ Equality by the Human Rights Campaign Foundation
- FIS received a perfect score for its corporate policies and practices related to LGBTQ workplace equality

Financial technology leader FIS™ (NYSE: FIS) has again been named a Best Place to Work for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and queer (LGBTQ) equality by the Human Rights Campaign Foundation.

FIS received a perfect score of 100 percent on the foundation's 2020 Corporate Equality Index (CEI), which included its most stringent criteria to date. The CEI is the nation's premier benchmarking survey and report measuring corporate policies and practices related to LGBTQ workplace equality. FIS is one of 686 businesses that earned top marks this year.

"FIS is fundamentally committed to the idea that having a diverse, inclusive employee base is key to our ability to innovate and deliver the best products and solutions for our clients," said Gary Norcross, FIS Chairman, President and CEO, who is a signatory of the CEO Action for Diversity & Inclusion pledge on behalf of the company. "We are proud to be recognized by the Human Rights Campaign Foundation for our efforts to foster an inclusive workplace environment where everyone's views are valued and our employees are empowered to thrive and reach their full potential."

The 2020 CEI evaluated companies on their LGBTQ-inclusive policies, practices and benefits, including non-discrimination policies, employment benefits, organizational competency and accountability around LGBTQ diversity and inclusion, public commitment to LGBTQ equality, and responsible citizenship.
