

U.S. District Court strikes down Target's arguments opposing class action status - Credit Union Times

Tuesday, September 15, 2015 05:31:30 PM (GMT)

- Citing a court ruling, Credit Union Times reports that five financial institutions (Umpqua Bank (UMPQ), Mutual Bank, Village Bank, CSE Federal Credit Union and First Federal Savings of Lorain) have won their ongoing legal battle over Target's data breach in 2013
- The judge struck down Target's assertion that its losses should be calibrated on an institution by institution basis

Reference Links:

- www.cutimes.com

Industries: Regional Banks, Retail (Department & Discount)

Primary Identifiers: TGT-US, UMPQ-US

Related Identifiers: TGT-US, UMPQ-US

Subjects: Articles, Reports, Litigation, Media Summaries