The Renaissance Dupont Circle Hotel, situated in Washington, DC's Dupont Circle neighborhood at 1143 New Hampshire Avenue at M Street, NW, is proud to announce their partnership with Capital Pride as an official hotel sponsor. Capital Pride is the annual celebration of the LGTBTA (Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender and Ally) community in the nation's capital and is traditionally held the first two weeks in June.

The Renaissance Dupont Circle Hotel has a long standing commitment to the LGTBTA community and has been a sponsor and host of several organizations including the Rainbow Wedding Network's LGBTQ Wedding Expo, Human Rights Campaign, National Gay & Lesbian Chamber of Commerce and Capital Area Gay & Lesbian Chamber of Commerce.

"Renaissance Hotels is committed to a culture of inclusiveness and at the Renaissance Dupont Circle Hotel, it's in the fabric of our culture," said Matt Felix, general manager of the Renaissance Dupont Circle Hotel. "We are proud to be involved with DC's LGTBTA community and honored to be a sponsor of Capital Pride."

"We are very fortunate to have the Renaissance Dupont Circle Hotel as our host hotel this year," said Capital Pride spokesperson, Missy Toms. "In addition to being a beautiful venue, the hotel is incredibly supportive of Capital Pride and is a warm and welcoming place for our visitors to stay."

In addition, Renaissance Dupont Circle offers their Out in DC LGBT hotel offer in Washington, DC all year round, which includes deluxe accommodations, complimentary in-room Internet access, a copy of a local LGBT community newspaper and the Washington, DC Navigaytour® book; the "official" LGBT guide to the city and its attractions. Plus, chocolate covered strawberries and a bottle sparkling wine or water delivered to rooms upon arrival.
