Company earned perfect score on Human Rights Campaign Foundation's 2018 Corporate Equality Index

The Travelers Companies, Inc. (NYSE: TRV) today announced that for the third consecutive year it has earned a perfect score on the Corporate Equality Index and been named a Best Place to Work for LGBTQ Equality. The Corporate Equality Index is a national benchmarking survey administered by the Human Rights Campaign Foundation that ranks participating companies on corporate policies and practices related to lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and queer (LGBTQ) workplace equality.

"Scoring 100 percent on the Corporate Equality Index for another year is a testament to our diversity and inclusion efforts, and we're extremely proud of the recognition," said Fred Colon, Chief Diversity & Inclusion Officer at Travelers. "We're committed to creating a welcoming environment that brings people together with different backgrounds and perspectives to encourage innovation and the sharing of new ideas – it helps us maintain a culture where employees feel valued, respected and supported."

The company supports diversity and inclusion in many ways. One of them is through its employee-led diversity networks, which are focused on attracting, retaining and developing all employees at Travelers. The company's LGBT and Allies Diversity Network, launched in 2012, has grown to more than 1,700 members.
