

Follow-up: CBS Corporation and National Amusements in talks to end dispute -- Deadline Hollywood
Wednesday, September 05, 2018 07:48:28 PM (GMT)

- Article notes that the legal dispute between CBS and National Amusements and a possible merger with Viacom (VIAB) may be nearing an end, noting that CBS and the Redstone family are in settlement talks.
- Deadline Hollywood notes that the talks have not reached a conclusion as to the fate of CBS CEO Les Moonves.
- Sources indicate the Moonves sexual harassment and sexual assault claims are being treated separately from the ongoing talks as the investigations proceed.
- One of CBS' independent directors, Bruce Gordon has been advocating for a deal to resolve the legal dispute.

Reference Links:

- deadline.com

Industries: Broadcasting & Cable TV, Motion Pictures

Primary Identifiers: CBS-US

Related Identifiers: CBS-US

Subjects: Articles, Reports, Conjecture, Litigation, Mergers and Acquisitions, Media Summaries, M&A Other Announcements, Published Reports

Related Stories:

- CBS Corporation and National Amusements in talks to end dispute -- Deadline Hollywood