Background: T-Mobile is committed to supporting individuality and equality – both externally and internally. In 2015, almost 1,000 T-Mobile employees participated in 22 LGBT Pride Celebrations nationwide.

And together with our very own employee-based Pride & Allies Network, we're continuing to build critical awareness around issues important to our LGBT employees, letting everyone know that T-Mobile is a great place to work and do business regardless of your sexual orientation or gender identity.

T-Mobile supports a culture of inclusion and accomplishment where you can bring your full self to work. We are proud to be recognized by the Human Rights Campaign (HRC) as a "Best Place to Work" with a perfect 100 score on the Corporate Equality Index.

By embracing diversity and promoting inclusion, we become a stronger company, allowing us to better connect with and serve our customers.
